The Kathleen Bowen Walk for Hope

- To honor the spirit of beloved campus minister Kathleen Bowen, who passed away after a courageous battle with cancer in June 2007, four of Seton Keough's student organizations (the National Honor Society, Vincentian Youth Outreach Club, Student Council, and SALT) have planned a memorial walk.
- In this inaugural year, funds raised from the walk will be donated to the families of senior Shannon Wolfe and freshman Keeley Imel. Both Shannon and Keeley are undergoing cancer treatment, and both of these young women inspire the Seton Keough community daily with their courage and grace.
- On Wednesday, March 5, 2008, from 8:00 a.m. to 2:40 p.m., Seton Keough's faculty and students will participate in the walkathon, and all other members of the Seton Keough community (parents, alumni, and friends) are invited to participate, as well.
- After an opening prayer service, the walk itself will officially begin. Team members will walk in half-hour increments around the Gator Circle. [In the event of inclement weather, the walk will held inside the school building.]
